Mr. F. Reese Brown
333 East 68th Street
New York 21, New York

Dear Mr. Brown:

Your letter of 10 January, addressed to Daniel Ellsberg at his home, has after much forwarding reached his office for reply. Mr. Ellsberg has been on an extended trip and is not expected to return to RAND for another two weeks or longer.

The series of lectures on "The Art of Coercion," sponsored by the Lowell Institute, March 1959, has not yet been published. Mr. Ellsberg wishes to express his appreciation for your interest in this work, and has asked that I enclose a draft copy of the chapter entitled "The Theory and Practice of Blackmail." This is the only chapter in the series of which a copy is available at this time.

It is hoped that the enclosed draft will prove useful to you.

Sincerely,

Jill Christman
Secretary to Daniel Ellsberg
